

SENATE RESOLUTION 63
By Rice

A RESOLUTION to honor and congratulate Angel Smith of Austin Peay State University on her selection as a 1996 Truman Scholar.

WHEREAS, it is fitting that the members of this body should pause to pay tribute to those exemplary students who through hard work, dedication and perseverance have achieved excellence and special recognition in their academic careers; and

WHEREAS, Angel Smith, Student Government Association president at Austin Peay State University, has been elected a 1996 Truman Scholar by the Harry Truman Scholarship Foundation; and

WHEREAS, this stellar scholar is the first Austin Peay student ever to be selected to receive this prestigious scholarship; and

WHEREAS, approximately 800 students from 391 institutions were nominated this year for Truman Scholarships; fewer than 60 students were selected with Ms. Smith being among them; and

WHEREAS, The Truman Foundation awards up to 85 scholarships annually worth as much as $30,000 each to students interested in pursuing careers in public service; and

WHEREAS, in addition to the meritorious service as student body president, Angel Smith is a responsible, diligent young lady who "has a genuine desire to make a meaningful contribution to society"; and

WHEREAS, she was featured in the winter 1995 edition of "The Alumnus"; and

WHEREAS, a senior political science major, Angel Smith has been accepted for admission to the University of Tennessee-Knoxville next fall where she will participate in the university's joint law degree-master of public administration degree program; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Smith and her four-year-old son, Daniel, live in Clarksville. She is the daughter of Natalie Childress, of Clarksville, and Kenneth Childress of Jacksonville, Florida; and

WHEREAS, Angel Smith has evidenced a tireless commitment to leading the examined life with liberality, conviction and courage, and she should be specially recognized; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE NINETY-NINTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, That we honor and congratulate Angel Smith of Austin Peay State University on being selected as a 1996 Truman Scholar and salute her overall excellence both as a student and a human being.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That we extend to Ms. Smith our best wishes for much continued success as she pursues graduate studies at the University of Tennessee.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.

A RESOLUTION to honor and congratulate Angel Smith of Austin Peay State University on her selection as a 1996 Truman Scholar.
